Bad Dürkheim, April 5th, 2022

ALUTEC, a brand of Superior Industries, is marking the start of spring by expanding its color range for the ADX.01 alloy wheel. The stylish wheel can now also be purchased with racing-black front polished blue paintwork.

ADX.01 now comes in an eccentric new look. ALUTEC has namely created an expressive new highlight in the color of racing-black front polished blue. The alloy wheel is available in a size of 8.5 x 20 inches with an offset of 45 and a five-hole connection.

Where the diamond cut usually reveals the bare aluminum, a powerful blue appears instead in this finish. The cool color underscores the striking style of the five double spokes, giving the ADX.01 an even more extravagant appearance, ideal for design enthusiasts. What's more, the wheel also features laser engraving to highlight its uniqueness – something that is sure to further impress any connoisseur.

Right from the start, there are suitable applications for selected vehicles such as the VW Golf, Cupra Leon, Skoda Enyaq, MB EQA, BMW 1 Series, and Mini Countryman.
